New Year's Greeting

“Immeasurable Light and Life.”

At the beginning of the year, I would like to send you my greetings.

May we all continue to live every day of this year in appreciation of the Nembutsu.

At the Hongwanji the restoration work of the Goeido ( The Hall of the founder Shinran Shonin ) which began eight years ago, is near completion. In the end of last fall, the shelter canopy was removed and the entire roof of the hall has now become visible again.

A certain percentage of old tiles that were made two hundred years as well as three hundred seventy years ago were also reused and you can tell the enthusiasm and high standard of professionalism in those days. The restoration project is scheduled to continue for two more years, mainly focusing on the interior of the hall, and for the most part, the altar area.

Although the preparation for the seven hundred fiftieth memorial for Shinran Shonin has been in steadily progress in the term of the buildings and other structures of the Hongwanji, with regard to the attitude and action of each one of us, there seems to be much that still needs to be done.

Traditional systems and rites are important and are the basis of our religious organization. However they might be difficult to follow for those who were born and raised in the districts that are far away from the Hongwanji. In addition, some of those traditions may not be essential for them. In these cases, I wonder if there is a short cut to present and inform them the way of life “to hear the Primal Vow and recite the Nembutsu.” Although such ways and means as publications and computers are increasingly available, nothing is more important than the human relationships. This is because we can realize the working of Amida Buddha through people who live in the Nembutsu.

Let us tackle with the sufferings of the modern people while talking about the Dharma using the modern language, and live together intoning the Nembutsu.

OHTANI Koshin
Monshu,
Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha

Dave's Greetings

I still can't believe the year has gone by so quickly! Our temple's busy schedule does not give our members much chance to relax. I think we all need to enjoy the holiday season by having a lot of family time together. With our busy schedules, we tend to forget the true meaning and take for granted the importance of family quality time.

Throughout this year, our temple has made many capital improvements. The rolling steel garage door, security cameras outside the temple with monitors in the kitchen and office and new board room chairs in the library. These enhancements were made possible with our members generous support and many hours of dedication to our temple. Throughout the years, our temple has become oneness with ourselves. Our ancestors given us a seed to grow and as a result creating a beautiful temple and a devoted Sangha. Domo arigato gozaimashita!!!

Thank-you to Mrs.Kitano for her many years of dedication to our temple and Sangha as our secretary. Our temple truly will miss her. Mrs. Gina Chor is now our new secretary. She is a wonderful person, hard working and full of energy. I'm sure with our support and patience, she'll feel right at home.

PS. Teaching her some Japanese words would really make her happy!

Our resident minister Rev.Aoki, has also made great efforts in providing guidance to our membership. Our Dharma school teachers and our temple's leading maestro Debbie Saimoto also needs to be recognized for their outstanding dedication. With this year soon ending, on behalf of the Board of Directors of the VBC, thank-you for all of your support!!!

Seasons Greetings and a Happy New Year,

In Gassho,
Dave Ohori

Happy New Year!

Not long ago someone said to me, “It hasn’t been an easy year, has it?” My response was, “I’ve found the older we get, there are no ‘easy years.’”

But this is no reason to despair or dread the year ahead. Every year is full of changes and challenges that will shape and give “flavor” to our lives.

Of the many wonderful memories I have of my father, two linger on my mind today. We knew the last month of his life that his heart was growing weaker. When I went to see him, Dad was napping in his room. I would just sit by his bedside. When his eyes opened, he would give me a big smile and say, “I’m still here!” We would laugh because it was as if he had read my mind.

Whenever I called him, our conversations always began with the usual inquiry: “How are you doing?” I always felt that my Dad’s response was remarkable. He would NOT say, “I’m okay” or “Not bad.” Whatever he may have felt physically, he would say, “Perfect.” His body may not have been doing well, but Dad felt his life was “Perfect.”

Each morning I awake, in my heart, I feel my Dad’s words, “I’m still here!” And whatever changes and challenges life may bring me, in my heart I also hope to feel that my life is “Perfect.” We wish everyone such a “Perfect” New Year for this would be a year of living a “Life of Nembutsu.”

Hoonko (Memorial Honoring Shinran Shonin)

As the most important Jodo Shinshu observance, this is the date chosen to commemorate Shinran Shonin’s passing. Traditionally, seven days of services are conducted at Honzan (mother temple in Kyoto Japan), culminating on January 16th. During that period, numerous activities are held, recalling the legacy that the Founder had left. This gives practitioners a chance to “hear the light” through listening to sermons, talks, rituals, and sangha fellowship.

(from Jodo Shinshu: A Guide)

Dharma School Update

Happy New Year Everyone from Dharma School students, parents and teachers!

Dharma School students all received gifts at Bodhi Day service on December 10th and followed it up by attending the movie “Happy Feet” (see student reviews) at a nearby theater. A week later, after the morning service, they helped pound and shape mochi at the otera for the New Year Services and then enjoyed a wonderful lunch prepared by the toban members and helpers. It was a happy ending to a full year of activities for the students.

Thank you to Aoki Sensei, the otera board and members, parents and students for their support and encouragement of Dharma School.

Molly Akune

The movie “Happy Feet” was funny, good, and silly.—Zach and Colton Oyama

The movie had a good story.
That Mumble the penguin was really good at tap-dancing.
The actors had good voices and the singing was great.
I loved the penguin. And I definitely liked the music!

Manley Xu ☺

On December 10, 2006 we went to see the movie Happy Feet with other kids from Dharma School.

The movie was about a penguin named Mumble who couldn't sing but he could dance. All the other penguins didn't like him and so Mumble went off to another place and made friends with other penguins.

My favorite part was when the little penguins on the other island said funny things to the seal that was trying to eat Mumble.

Mochi, mochi, mochi

Today's event was very memorable and a great success !! The turnout of volunteer's this year was around 100 people. The event was flawless thanks to everyone who helped in many ways that they can big or small. The variety of mochi dishes prepared today was delicious !! The manual work has treated with smiling faces and laughter.

Thank-you to all who made this event and to the future heritage of our temple.

Domo Arigato,

Dave

Greetings to all from the Fraser Valley.

Summer slid into fall like an otter slides into a pool..... we certainly have had a lot of wet this second week of November.

Fortunately we have had a successful and fun fall bazaar before the rain, our first since the reopening of the temple. Thanks to our many volunteers and donors to our cause, we were able to see a profit in our first such financial venture and best of all, we had lots of good food to eat, vegetables and baking to take home and some interesting purchases from our craft and white elephant tables. I have added to my collection of fridge magnets with new, beautiful Japanese ones, and I saw one buyer purchase an almost new color tv for $50.00. You can't beat that!

Congratulations to the Steveston temple for putting on a fantastic convention. The problems faced by the environment and biodiversity became much clearer when it was explained so expertly by Dr. Moola. Recognizing that relationship of interdependence in nature and humans is such a strong Buddhist concept, his lecture struck an immediate and powerful chord in many of the listeners. And practicing the "other kind of meditation" was very enlightening on Sunday. The session on stress, causes and effects, and reduction of ... was not only timely but constructive.

This month was however, a sad time as well. We lost a treasured friend, Nancy Fuyoko Saito on November 13. Nancy and her husband Mitsuo unceasingly and generously supported us during our rebuilding and joyfully came to temple with us during the last two years. The ginko tree donated by them in front of the temple flourishes and will stand as a constant remembrance of them both.

As for our future events, our little temple in the valley is looking forward to our monthly shotsuki and simple dharma services. Our December service will be on December 2 at 11:00. And we will be again celebrating "fun" at our second annual Games night for kids, young and old. Our evening of games will be on December 29th Friday night at 7:00 with card games, board games, udon and nibbles. Come play with us, you may win some valuable prizes.

Akemashite omedetoo gozaimasu Happy New Year to you all..... from the valley!

The festive season will have come and gone when you are reading this, but hopefully the peace and joy of the time will linger. In Japan it is said that the Oshoogatsu festival is the most important of the year. It is the beginning, the opening, of the new year. We, in the valley, wish everyone peace and joy through the entire 2007 year. May all the temples across Canada joyfully observe Shusho-e ( New Year's Service ) to rededicate our lives to the way laid down for us in the Jodo Shinshu with Amida Buddha as our guide and teacher.

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has helped us during the last year and wish them all a peaceful, positive, harmonious year 2007.

January is the month of HO-ON-KO (gathering of Thanksgiving Memorial Service of Shinran Shonin), which is the most important service in a year in our tradition. It is not only the opportunity for us to pay tribute to his 90 years of life from 1173 to 1262 during the turbulent era of Kamakura period, but also to review our Shinjin awareness once a year just like you have annual medical check-up.

Shinran Shonin created many Wasan (poems) to explain the meaning of scripture, so that ordinary people could better understand. Here is one of them in the Chapter of last dharma-age.

Realization of true and real shinjin
Is rare in the defiled world of the last dharma-age;
The witness of Buddhas countless as the sands of the Ganges
Reveals how difficult it is to attain.

The reason we put the stress in Shinjin in our Jodo Shinshu tradition is the fact that it is unique and different from the faith in other religions. It is not simply the act of believing something unknown. Shinjin is the awareness of Great Compassion that belongs to Amida Buddha, who constantly tries to reach us. Because it belongs to the Buddha, it is not something we can hold and keep. We only hear His Compassionate Vow to save us who are lost in the world of Five Defilements. All we can hold and keep is the Nembutsu, which is the essence of Shinjin. Whenever we hear of and appreciate the Vow, we simply recite namo-amida-butsu, which gives us strength to carry on this human life with peace of mind.

Shinjin comes from the Compassion of Amida Buddha and its existence is something like AIR. Although we cannot hold or keep, we are rather WITHIN it from the beginning. Therefore we say we are always EMBRACED by Amida Buddha. We don't need to hold it, but we can only appreciate with gratitude.

May you attend the Ho-on-ko at your nearest temple and continue to cherish the Nembutsu.
